(12) 'Morning Walk'

Morning walk is very useful to our body. I go for a morning walk daily in the garden of our colony. Many people are present there. I take exercise there in the early morning. I take Yoga and Pranayam also in the cool breeze. The chatter of birds seems very pleasant. The scene of the red-coloured rising sun fills my heart with a new zeal and hope. There are many advantages of morning walk. It is said - "Sound Body has a Sound Mind". Sound body can be achieved by a morning walk. It refreshes and fills energy in our body. Morning walk is good for health. By a morning walk we come close to nature.

context : In these lines the poet describes how he recovered from his poverty.

Explanation : The poet believes that trusting others is like building a castle on sand because his all friends deserted him in his adversity. He trusted in God and his own work. His courage returned to him with this realisation. In spite of ill fortune he worked hard and his mood became cheerful. His hard work raised him from his painful situations and it saved him from sorrow and grief. It fed him food and clothed him and he became a ~~prop~~ prosperous man. Thus his hard work and believe in God raised him from adversity.
