SPEECH - WRITING

CHILD LABOUR

Honourable Chief Guest, Respected Principal, worthy teachers and all my dear friends.

Today I Deepak Sharma, student of class - XII is standing in front of you to express my views on the topic "Child Labour".

Our Country India is growing very fastly in every field of modernisation but there are some issues are still same as before. Child labour is the hot burning issue of present time.

This evil has not decline since yet. Child labour is a blot on the forehead of humanity. The evil problem is increasing day-by-day in our country.

According to the report of UNDP, 2015 there are 80 Millions child labours working in restaurants, tea stalls, hotels etc. They all have the right to live a free and educated life. When there should be books are in hands there are brooms and

Indian government also has banned
the child labour and passed a act of Right to education, 2009 in which 6 - 14 years child will get free and compulsary education. But still there is a urgent need against this evil
issue of society.
Thank You.

In the chapter "Water" the writer "C.V. Raman" highlights the facts and importance of water.

Water is the most commonest and one of uncommon liquid on this earth. but due to the the excessive rain or slope of land or due to the creation of deep gullies and ravins, the problem of soil erosion is there. Soil erosion refers to the washed off the top layer of soil and left the land barren.

- There are various measures to check the soil erosion. They are-
- i) Terracing of land in the mountains and hilly regions to prevent soil erosion.
 - ii) Contour ploughing in the fields.
 - iii) growing of Vegetation belts in the areas of non-vegetation.
 - iv) Construction of bunds and dams to prevent the soil to be eroded.

If these methods are used then the top layer of soil will be
