16 (i) The Fog - - - - - moves

Reference :-

These lines have been taken from the Poem 'The Fog'. It is composed by 'Carl Sandburg'.

Context :-

In this stanza the Poet says that Fog is like a cat. He compares Fog to a cat. He tells similarity between fog and cat.

Explanation:-

In these lines the poet said that the fog comes quietly / silently like a little cat. The fog silently haunches over harbour and city. With the rising of sun fog moves away quietly. So the poet tells the similarity between fog and cat about their silent feature.

Critical Note:-

- (i) The language is used here very simple and lucid.
- (ii) It is a fine example of 'metaphor'.

(17) (i) The 'dust of snow' indicates some small particles of snow. A crow shook some particles of snow from a hemlock tree on the poet. This incident changed his mood.

'The Importance of Traffic lights'

Good morning everybody.

I Devendra Yadava, student of class Xth 'A' from Vileshwar School, stand to give a speech on 'The Importance of Traffic light'.

Traffic lights are three types. Red, yellow and green in colour. These are very important from the view of traffic. Red light indicates that the traffic is stopped. Green indicates that the traffic is moving. Yellow says indicates the vehicle to wait a minute. Traffic lights are useful to control traffic. We must follow the traffic lights for safe travelling.

I request to the drivers to follow the Traffic lights.

Thank you.

A Quiz Contest

A Quiz Contest was held in my school on the teacher's day on 5 Sep. The topic was General Knowledge. The Eligibility of taking part was about a student who passed light class. I also take part in it. There were three rounds of the contest. The Questions asked there was very hard. I reached at second round but I lost. My friend Ashok won the contest. The Principal of our school gave him a gold coin as a reward.

Save Trees

Trees are the beauty of nature. They are very useful for us. They give us wood, fruit and vegetables etc. Trees are an important part of water cycle. Trees provide shelter to animals and other birds. Trees give us fresh air. Trees use CO₂ in their food. Trees provide us fresh and pollutant free environment. Now the greedy man is cutting trees for his little profit. Thus we should stop them and save
